

SMS joke of the day

Nurse: Mubarak ho Gabbar Singh, aapko beta hua hai... bilkul aap par gaya hai, paida hote hi bola — 'kitne aadmi the'.

WHAT'S HOT 'N' HAPPENING?

Catch the last day of the festival of documentary films — Romania, from myths through history and spirituality. The event comprises talks by specialists.

India International Centre
10 am to 7 pm

Grand Westend's Mela, has a mix of Indian, Continental and Chinese dishes complimented well with a variety of mocktails and cocktails.

Grand Westend
Vikas Puri
All day

To celebrate Delhi as the World Book Capital, a book exhibition — Bookshook —

A celebration of life. That's what the evening hosted by wealth-planners Himanshu Kohli, Rohit Sarin and Sohail Bhatia turned out to be at Hotel Taj Mahal on Saturday evening.

After a lecture-session on the art of life and the mantra of living it to the fullest which dwelt on following the diktats of your heart but taking

David and Rachna Davidar

ALL SMILES: Himanshu and Parul Kohli

Photos: NITIN MALIK

The mantra of living...

care not to step onto others' shoes, it was time to relax. Amidst much cheer, a huge cake was cut to officially declare the party open.

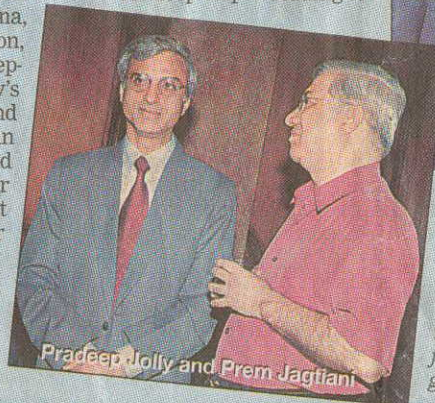

Later, as drinks did the rounds, the large gathering attended by corporate honchos including Max New York Life's Suril Sharma, Wenger's Aman Tandon, Price Waterhouse's Deepak Kapoor, Infinity's Saurabh Srivastava and Consultant Irfan Khan saw everyone inspired enough to discuss their view of life and the art of living it happily ever after.

Many agreed with the view that today's generation was missing out on reading, which plays a major role in the development of the mind and were seen discussing ways of tackling this. Also seen engrossed in deep conversation that evening were TV-anchor Nalini Singh, Penguin-CEO David Davidar with wife Rachna and Pradeep Gupta. Adding to the mood of the evening was a live band which played some great, soulful romantic numbers such as Nothing gonna change my love for you and My heart will go on...

Surya & Priyanka Bhatia

Pradeep Jolly and Prem Jagtiani

Zonunsangi Ralte